

„Let’s sit together in class!” Dialogue for an inclusive society

24 September, 2022

H13 Community Center (www.h13.hu 1085 Budapest, Horánszky u. 13.)

9:45–10:00 Welcome

10:00–11.30 Roundtable discussion on school segregation and desegregation policies
(moderated by Ágnes Kende)

11:30–11:45 Coffee break

11:45–13:15 Knowledge-sharing workshop: good practices in creating equal opportunities and building communities

13:15–14:00 Lunch

14:00–16:00 Not About Family (documentary by Anna Kis, 2020)

Film and discussion with the film-makers (moderated by András Müllner)

Lumen Café (1085 Budapest, Horánszky u. 5.)

15:00–16:30 Roma dance pedagogy demonstration by Harmónia Folk Band

16:30–19:00 Buffet dinner

17:00–19:00 Living Library – Personal discussions with representatives of disadvantaged groups. Co-organized by Living Library for Human Rights

Liszt Academy (Room X, Budapest, Liszt Ferenc tér 8.)

20:00–21:00 The influence of Roma music on classical music – Presentation and concert of Kálmán Dráfi, Franz Liszt Prize awarded pianist

Károly Bura Art Gallery (1081 Budapest, Kőfaragó u. 5.)

10:00–13:00 Art classes for children

All day Szabadulás (Escape) exhibition of roma artists

The organizer of the event, the Inclusion4Schools project (inclusion4schools.eu), respectfully invites you to the above event. The roundtable discussion and the knowledge-sharing workshop will be broadcast online with English translation.

Please indicate your participation in person or online on the registration interface below: <https://forms.gle/V9x5LhnmvTr34RJ7>

During the morning session, we provide children’s program for participants with families in the Károly Bura Gallery.

